You didn’t draw a permit to “The Wave”? No problem. Check out the White Wave. The trail starts at the parking kiosk for the three-miles-long trail through a wash to the “White Wave.” This is a well-cleared trail, perfect for OHVs. A thrilling adventure of 4-wheeling in deep sand through a desert landscape of ocotillo, sage brush, junipers, yucca and piñon pine, a beautiful blooming desert. Make a day of it. See the map for the directions to the parking kiosk. Then explore the amazing rock formations at the White Wave. If you are feeling adventurous, there are some petroglyphs in the area you may want to see. You don’t have a 4WD? No problem. Call a local tour company to take you out for the day.

Getting There:
- From Kanab, drive 8.8 miles North on HWY 89.
- Just past mile post 72, turn right at the Peek A Boo parking area.
- The trail starts at the northeast of the parking on road 102.
- Continue until you drop into the wash.
- Cross the wash onto road 107H for 0.6 miles.
- The road ends. Park here. Walk up the wash to the White Wave.
- There are some petroglyphs in the area you might explore.

Disclaimer:
This map and directions are intended for general reference use only. Always check local road and weather conditions. Stay on designated roads. OHV roads are impassable when wet. Please respect the land. Be prepared for a wilderness experience. Always bring extra water, food, sunscreen, and supplies. Cell phone service is nonexistent in most areas! Do not remove artifacts or deface the “rock art”. Leave no trace of your visit so others may enjoy.
